It was one of the most enjoyable events in which "the boys" of this famous old regiment have participated since the war.

Mr. Thomas Potter, a wealthy contractor, residing in Rahway, while not a soldier himself, has an ardent admiration for the men who were the blue in the for the men who wore the blue in the memorable conflict. It has been his desire for a long time to show his appre-ciation of the services of the men of this command by a substantial act of patriotism and friendliness, so he invited the regiment to come to his hospitable home and enjoy its beauty and comforts to their hearts' content.

Some one said it was cloudy at the time, but it was all sunshine in that beautiful park throughout the day. Hundreds of Rahway's gentle folk were there to help Mr. Potter entertain the veterans.

A fine band played all the day long, and a dinner—perhaps I should have said banquet—perfect in detail, was partaken of by the delighted assemblage.
It was decided to hold the next Reunion in Elizabeth. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Col. Chauncey Harris, President; Gen. John C. Patterson, Secretary; Russell C. Johnson, Treasurer; George D. Sorter, Chaplain.

A year ago a movement was started to place a monument on the battlefield at Monocacy, Md., to the memory of those members of the First Brigade, Third Division, Sixth Corps, who fell in that battle. The movement included appropriations from the Legislatures of the States of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Vermont and Maryland. As some of the States failed to respond, the project was unsuccessful. It was resolved at this Reunion to renew the attempt at the coming session of the New Jersey Legislature, and it is hoped that success will y monocacy, Md., to the insentory of those members of the First Brigade, Third Dirysion, Sixth Corps, who fell in that bat tite.
